Save the date!

About two years later than actually planned, Lyon will be the city to host the WORLD CONGRESS FOR NEUROREHABILITATION in 2022. The COVID-19-pandemic delayed our intention to use the beautiful Centre de Congrès Lyon for the joint congress of the World Federation for NeuroRehabilitation (WFNR) and the French Society for Physical and Rehabilitation Medicine (SOFMER). Therefore, the hosting societies are already looking forward to inviting you to this special congress from 1–5 November 2022.

The joint congress of WFNR & SOFMER is an international expert forum for the presentation and discussion of new research focusing on interdisciplinary aspects as well as current and future concepts of neurorehabilitation as well as physical and rehabilitation medicine.

It would not only be a great pleasure to have you in Lyon, we also invite you to actively contribute to the scientific programme by submitting your proposal for a scientific symposium or workshop.

Detailed information and the possibility to submit your proposal can soon be found online at www.wfnr-congress.org.
